

Be a Part of Something Special Volunteer at the National Marathon

Are you looking to be a part of something special?

In only its fifth year, the National Marathon is the only marathon to take place entirely within the District of Columbia. With your help, the National Marathon will continue to be one of the fastest emerging marathons on the East Coast.

Volunteers are vital to the success of the National Marathon! If you are interested in being a volunteer please visit www.nationalmarathon.com.

Volunteer opportunities during race week include:

Friday March 19th at Health & Fitness Expo:

- Expo Greeters
- T Shirt Distributors
- Packet Pick Up

Saturday, March 20th at Finish Line Festival:

- Bag Check
- Athlete Food Distribution
- Course Marshall

Visit www.nationalmarathon.com for available days, times, roles and locations!